Discussion of the Department of Health and Environmental Control

- I. Chair Henderson spoke briefly about introductory matters and the Subcommittee's progress in its study of the Department of Health and Environmental Control.
- II. Director Heigel summarized the actions that the Department had taken in response to testimony given at the public hearing.
- III. Director Heigel introduced the members of the agency's leadership team present, including Lilian Peake, M.D. (Director of Health Services), Kevin Guion (Chief Operating Officer), Shelly Kelly (Director of Health Regulation), Shelly Kelly (Director of Health Regulation), Myra Reece (Director of Environmental Affairs), Marcus Robinson (Chief Human Resources Officer), and David Wilson (Senior Director of Legislative Affairs). Director Heigel then gave a presentation to the Subcommittee about the state of the agency. Some of the topics she addressed were:
  - a. The agency's need to move its Columbia headquarters into new facilities;
  - b. The improvements at the agency over the past few years;
  - c. The agency's handling of the Savannah River Site; and
  - d. The agency's development of new budgeting techniques.
- IV. The Subcommittee members asked questions of Director Heigel about topics such as:
  - a. The public's satisfaction with the agency's services;
  - b. The opinions of the agency's employees about its performance; and
  - c. The agency's requests for legal changes to some of its regulatory authority.

- V. Chair Henderson said that, in the interest of time, the Subcommittee would send further questions or topics of concern to Director Heigel in writing after the conclusion of the meeting so that Director Heigel could address them at a future meeting.
- VI. The meeting was adjourned.
